Dear Dr. McCormick:

Your term of probation expired on October 5, 1993 with no further action pending or contemplated. You may report your license as being unmodified and in good standing.

You will not be responsible for any probation expenses from the Board after that date. However, you should immediately pay any charges you receive which occurred prior to October 5.

Please accept our congratulations on this positive step and our best wishes for a productive and successful career.

Sincerely,

Tom Sosbee
Compliance & Education Coordinator
