11. If my felony conviction is not overturned on appeal, I agree that, should the Board ever vote to restore my license upon my application, I must undergo a full multidisciplinary evaluation by a facility preapproved by the Board Secretary, to determine my readiness to return to the practice of medicine. I further agree that if my license is restored it will be under terms of probation as determined at that time.
12. If the felony conviction is overturned on appeal and no other appeals are sought, the Board shall restore the license of the physician. 59 O.S. 513(A)(3).
