MEDICAL LICENSURE & SUPERVISION

Case No. 03-09-2712

COMPLAINT

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, the State of Oklahoma ex rel. the Oklahoma State Board of Medical Licensure and Supervision (the "Board"), by and through its attorney, Elizabeth A. Scott, Assistant Attorney General, and for its Complaint against the Defendant, Leslie Ann Sibley, M.D., alleges and states as follows:

1. The Board is a duly authorized agency of the State of Oklahoma empowered to license and oversee the activities of physicians and surgeons in the State of Oklahoma pursuant to 59 Okla. Stat. §480 et seq.
2. Defendant, Leslie Ann Sibley, M.D., holds Oklahoma license no. 21537.
3. Defendant admits that in or around early 2002, while employed at Cancer Care in Tulsa, Oklahoma, she wrote a prescription for Percocet, a Schedule II controlled dangerous substance, to a nurse, who in turn gave back a portion of the drugs to Defendant for her personal use.
4. Beginning in February 2002 and continuing through September 2003, Defendant wrote prescriptions for controlled dangerous substances in the name of Bonita Kay Dobbs, Defendant's household employee. These prescriptions include twelve (12) prescriptions for Oxycodone, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 785 dosage units, sixteen (16) prescriptions for Oxycontin, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 894 dosage units, four (4) prescriptions for Endocet, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 320 dosage units, five (5) prescriptions for Lorazepam, a Schedule IV controlled dangerous substance, for 340 dosage units, and two (2) prescriptions for Percocet and Isometh/APAP, both controlled dangerous drugs, for 105 dosage units. Defendant or Ms. Dobbs picked up these medications at at least three (3) different pharmacies in the Tulsa area. The controlled dangerous substances were not for the use of Ms. Dobbs but were for the personal use of Defendant. Defendant admits that she kept no patient chart for Ms. Dobbs.

5. Beginning in May 2003 and continuing through September 2003, Defendant wrote prescriptions for controlled dangerous drugs in the name of Jesse Estep, the son of her household employee, Bonita Kay Dobbs, a set forth above. These prescriptions include one (1) prescription for Oxycodone, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 100 dosage units, four (4) prescriptions for Endocet, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 400 dosage units, two (2) prescriptions for Lorazepam, a Schedule IV controlled dangerous drug, for 200 dosage units, and three (3) prescriptions for Paxil, for 60 dosage units. Upon information and belief, Defendant or Ms. Dobbs picked up these medications at at least two (2) different pharmacies in the Tulsa area. These drugs were not for the use of Mr. Estep but were for the personal use of Defendant. Defendant admits that she kept no patient chart for Mr. Estep.

6. In June and August 2003, Defendant wrote prescriptions for controlled dangerous drugs in the name of Laura Cottingham, Defendant's sister who resided in the state of Texas. These prescriptions include two (2) prescriptions for Oxycontin, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 120 dosage units. Defendant picked up these prescriptions at a Tulsa area pharmacy. Defendant admits that these drugs were not for the use of Ms. Cottingham, but were for the personal use of Defendant. Defendant admits that she kept no patient chart on Ms. Cottingham.

7. Beginning in May 2003 and continuing until August 2003, Defendant wrote prescriptions for controlled dangerous drugs in the name of Linda Masters, Defendant's mother, who resided in the state of California. These prescriptions include four (4) prescriptions for Oxycontin, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 270 dosage units, and one (1) prescription for Oxycodone, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 60 dosage units. Defendant and Ms. Dobbs picked up these prescriptions at at least two (2) Tulsa area pharmacies. Defendant admits that these drugs were not for the use of Ms. Masters, but were for the personal use of Defendant. Defendant admits that she kept no patient chart on Ms. Masters.

8. In August and September 2003, Defendant wrote prescriptions for controlled dangerous drugs in the name of Timothy Dobbs, the husband of her household employee, Bonita Kay Dobbs. These prescriptions include four (4) prescriptions for Oxycontin, a Schedule II controlled dangerous drug, for 310 dosage units and one (1) prescription for Lorazepam, a Schedule IV controlled dangerous drug, for 60 dosage units. Either Defendant or Ms. Dobbs, at Defendant's request, picked up these medications at a Tulsa area pharmacy. The controlled dangerous substances were not for the use of Mr. Dobbs but were for the personal use of Defendant. According to Mr. Dobbs, he has never been a patient of Defendant.

9. During the time that Defendant was obtaining controlled dangerous drugs in the names of her family members, employee, and employee's family members, Defendant was also obtaining controlled dangerous drugs in her own name from at least two (2) other physicians in the Tulsa area.

10. After Board Investigator Washbourne and DEA investigators had conducted their investigation, Defendant contacted Investigator Washbourne and admitted that she had lied to investigators in previous interviews and conversations.

11. On Defendant's Applications for Renewal of Oklahoma License dated May 2, 2002 and May 2, 2003, in response to the question "Have you been addicted to or abused any drug or chemical substance including alcohol?" since the last renewal, Defendant answered "NO".

12. Defendant is guilty of unprofessional conduct in that she:
