Dear Doctor Chesnut:

As of December 8, 1977 your probationary term came to an end and it was not necessary for you to appear before the Board at its regular meeting on May 19, 1978.

However, your case was again discussed and the entire Board of Medical Examiners recommended that your continued compliance with the Medical Practice Act be encouraged and also asked that I extend to you our offer of assistance if for any reason you feel this is necessary.

Sincerely,
